OFF THE TOP

LOOKS AND BRAINS...TOGETHER!

By Graylin Thornton, Mr. Drummer 1993

As the year draws to a close, leather men and women all over the globe are prepared for local and regional competitions. Already, organizations and clubs are grooming their top volunteers and fund raisers in hope they may be recognized for their past accomplishments and singled out from selective fields to continue their work on a different level.

From years of attending events and fundraisers, I've often wondered just how the winner was picked. How many times have we walked away from many a contest thinking "she's pretty but we'll never see her again", or "I think I'll buy the Chippendale Calendar this year instead of the Bare Chest Calendar from my local leather bar", even though those photogenic hunks have given their time so the profits can go to local charities. Just what do these judges look for when making their selection? When our favorite isn't picked, we wonder, do they see something we don't or are they playing a cruel joke on the leather community?

Maybe the winner is the result of the Olympic Scoring System, which I, to this day, have not heard a reasonable excuse for using. We've all heard the speech, "The highest score and the lowest score are thrown out so there can be no bias from the judges." First of all, if you can't trust your judges to be unbiased then why have them as judges? Secondly, I know many a judge who was afraid to score high who feared his or her score may be thrown out. Thirdly, are the judges ever really instructed on how to use this system? In the few minutes of briefing before the contest, the judges are expected to remember which scores are going to be tossed out and which ones will be kept. To further confuse matters, some producers toss out the highest and lowest from each category, some discount the highest and lowest from each judge, while others discard the highest and lowest from the totals. Totally confused yet? Think how the judges must feel. I, myself have spent time on a judging panel trying to outwit the system and award scores that will count instead of giving the score which will be discarded. If this were cheerleader tryouts or springboard diving maybe the system would be more affective. But it ain't, and it don't, so why the hell do we insist that it's fair? The scoring system and judging criteria is always the decision of the contest producer. They know what they are looking for and the contest results are a clear reflection. Never the less, I need to emphasize that the winner is the winner and no matter how much we agree (or not) with the judges decision, he or she deserves our full and complete support during their entire reign. Period!

Before I continue my judge bashing (and I'm not really bashing), let's try to decide what the judges are looking for. There must be a reason to ask men and women, at least those who enter the "fun" contests, such as bar calendars, safe sex posters, Mr. Anatomy-of-the-Week, etc., socially compelling questions like the situation in Mogadishu (though most of us never heard of this place before it hit the 6 PM news). Putting them on stage and having them flex and bend over for the audience should be enough. I know that's all the crowd cares about anyway, even though world affairs is vital information which can and should be used later in fundraising efforts. But really, is it important for someone who's bare buns, tits, or chest that is going to be posted on our refrigerators for 30+ days, need to be able to speak on foreign policy or national security??!

Let's be realistic. We live in a society where our looks and sexual abilities are just as important as our speaking and leadership abilities. We often hate to admit it, but we do see the "outer being" first. Even when it comes to picking titleholders. Superficial as it may make us feel, we want to "get to know the person" later. Yes, I know they have to have the ability and desire to spend numerous Saturdays to stand on a rainy street corner and sell themselves and their calendars for charity money. However, I have yet to buy a calendar from a man with a "pretty brain"! Recently, I protested to a friend that he was originally drawn to me because of a physical attractiveness and had no intentions of pursuing it any further. His response, "Well I didn't want to fuck your personality." Some how, this rang true. I didn't want to fuck his either, even though he does have a great personality.

So, in all honesty, when we are at a contest, are we judging the men and women because they have worked their asses off or are we looking at their physical attractiveness? Are they beauty queens or men and women we'll depend on to raise money and speak on our behalf when we don't have the time or desire to do so? Sounds like the judges job is not as easy as it may seem. It's much easier and a whole lot more fun to sit anonymously in the safety of the crowd and criticize their decision once the contest is over. And if they used the Olympic Scoring System, they probably will be as surprised as you. It can be a no win situation.

Each judge hopes to find someone who will work tirelessly for a year without complaining (ok, a little!) and often without support. These volunteers (remember, this is not a paid position) are suddenly thrust into the limelight even if that was not their original intention. But now, they have been afforded a "voice" as well as an audience who is anxious to listen. But being in this "light" makes one an easy target. The private becomes the public, while the innocent becomes scrutinized. And yet, these dedicated individuals still go for it! The rewards for ones ideas taking shape or making a contribution to the community which we love cannot be equaled. Isn't that why we volunteer in the first place? Because we want to make a difference.

Finding a titleholder who meets everyone's ideal is a rarity. The contest which includes the speech, question and answer period, along with a decent amount of beauty is designed to produce such individuals. But these individuals are volunteers who are willing to give their time and often finances so they can make a difference. There is little personal gain, only personal satisfaction.

As the new season of sashes, calendars, and contests begins, it is important to be fair to the person we place on the platform. Whether they got there because of brains or beauty, the fact is we put them there. Not the judges, not the audience, not the scoring system, but us. While they bust their butts and sacrifice for our community, please, let them have their measured moments of glory during the year of their reign. We should not forget that we have produced men and women in the past who have made us and themselves proud. Together we will continue that pride. Leather pride. ■

*Dear Martijn,
Marcus, Mark, Kris,
Derek, and Audrey...*

Congratulations! The 1993 Mr. Drummer events week was a decided success. While many of the leather men and women in attendance may not realize just how hard the Drummer, RoB and Fantastic Realities Unlimited staffs work, I'm sure they would agree with me that it was a very impressive job well done. Personally, to have been invited to be a part of the Mr. Drummer contest judging process for the seventh year in a row, I was honored to be your 1993 - 1994 Head Judge.

The honor comes from being involved with a Gay Man's leather contest in which integrity is ironclad and unquestionable. As a leather community businessman, I'd also like to mention how impressed I was with the success of the Concourse Vendors Fair. With the positive word of mouth all the Mr. Drummer events are sure to generate, they can only be bigger and better next year. I hope Zeus will be invited back in 1994. The company is at your service.

critical examination of this crucial issue. As he so clearly points up, the "naysayers" are all around us, (and they are us) and doubtless some, perhaps many will object to his theses. Certainly there will be those in the Lesbian/Gay world, and most assuredly within the Leather/SM/fetish world who will take great exception to the points clearly raised, and I believe unequivocally made, and with real genius. More notable in his writing on this issue is the extraordinary absence of arrogance demonstrated by his constant use of "we" when addressing the matter within our world.

I became so increasingly angry and frustrated at all the infighting within our world and the Lesbian/Gay world at large some years ago, specifically in San Diego, that I simply took the option of retreating out of a "need for self preservation." In this area, constant attacks and viciousness permeate the local Gay Printed Media, ad nauseam! I didn't and don't have time for the bullshit! True, I was also caring for two sick lovers, both of whom died as I held and nurtured them, this within the past four and half years (July 1988 and February this year). This experience, and my own need to avoid stress for my own health-sake, does have the effect of reordering priorities and dumping all the "baggage."

The gay world in San Diego is very strange! For reasons obvious and less obvious, would that every person in our world in San Diego could avail themselves of Mr. BeBout's writing. The Leather world here is, of all others, most in need of taking to heart his work on this issue. For years I have hung my hat on the writings of Geoff Main's URBAN ABORIGINAL, A Celebration of Leathersexuality, Gay Sunshine Press, 1984. Sadly, Geoff died in 1989. But what of his work? One of the first questions I ask when meeting a leatherman for the first time is does he know Geoff's work. I am appalled at the number who would fancy themselves hard-core who don't know, nor have they even heard of the work! One who ignores history and it's heroes does so at his own peril! My copy of Geoff's book is well marked-up. With respect to Mr. BeBout's writing, I highly commend Geoff's writing in Chapter One: "Anatomy of a Culture." Geoff's standards in that superbly written thesis are the gauge I use when analyzing any group, organization or club (or individual for that matter) purporting to be a part of the world I've come to love and appreciate! It's a high standard! If you and your umbrella corporation are honestly serious about what it is you're doing, and

I am not willing to let his legacy be forgotten, nor the extraordinarily pristine beauty of the man's life. URBAN ABORIGINAL ought to be required reading in every would-be leather person's library!

You deserve the highest of praise (certainly have mine) for the incredible improvement in format and appearance of DRUMMER since "S.V. Frost" became Art Director!! Incomparable!! Makes subscribing a viable option! (Enclosed!)

PRESS RELEASE:

Peter the Great
by Cavelo

(KW:BC - MOSCOW - REBELLION)
(X3810/10MTM - A --12-JUNE-1660)
(ON-LINE WIRE WAB:X1563;IRB; (WB)bc - Moscow - rebellion)

MOSCOW - The Tsar returned unexpectedly to the capitol after cutting short his trip to Vienna. Tsar Peter's return coincided with the arrival of nearly 1900 Streltsy rebels who recently were brought to Moscow in chains. Their rebellion was crushed last Friday near the New Jerusalem Monastery --about thirty miles northwest of Moscow.

Sources indicate that despite the quick collapse of the Streltsy revolt, which never seriously threatened his throne, Tsar Peter was profoundly disturbed. The Tsar was apparently quite humiliated and angered by having part of his army rebel while he was travelling aboard.

"The Streltsy did not act alone! I intend to find out how far the roots of their rebellion has spread and I will stop at nothing to smoke out all the high persons who are involved," the angry Tsar was reported as saying. "I must know who instigated them--and on whose behalf?"

Hundreds of prisoners are said to have been collected from cells throughout Moscow and brought to Preobrazhenskoe. Several of the traitors apparently have already been interrogated. Preliminary information obtained thus far indicate that the rebels had first intended to sack and burn the entire German Quarter and massacre all the inhabitants, then to enter Moscow, kill all who resisted and seize all the leading boyars. Following this, it is reported that they would announce to the people of Russia that the Tsar had died in the West and his sister, Princess Sophia, would be called upon to act as regent until Tsarevich Alexis, Peter's son became old enough to rule.

Interrogation in Russia means questioning under severe torture. Much favored in interrogation are the "batog"-- a rod used to beat the victim's bare back by two men simultaneously, the "knout"-- a thick, hard leather whip about three and a half feet long whose first blow tears the skin from the victim and repeated strokes will bite through to the bone, as well as burning with red-hot irons.

Tsar Peter is expected to participate in the interrogations himself in order to hear the confessions first hand.

Swat, Splash, Sizzle, and Such

by Joseph W. Bean

Part One:

Illustrations

Man's Hand
Calendar 1994

Swat

Man's Hand Films has been creating the spankers library for a dozen years. They do videos, lots of videos all the time. Everyone who knows about spanking things at all seems to know that. But, not everyone knows that Man's Hand also publishes Spanking: An Anthology.

The release of each volume of the anthology comes, as far as I can see, whenever it comes, but the swats in each magazine-style volume make it worth waiting for. Besides, where else are you going to get anything like it? Volume One is "temporarily out of print," but sure to come back some time soon. Volumes Two through Four have been around for a while. Five is brand-spanking new (Pardon me, sometimes puns are so obvious they shouldn't be used. Like that one.)

Readers of earlier volumes will be glad to hear that the regular features continue. And, since just about anyone who reads any volume ends up ordering them all, you too will be glad. There's a heftily annotated film-ography of spanking and corporal punishment interest. This issue, the list is headed by Walt Disney's Pinocchio, which turns out to be a much kinkier film than I ever noticed it being. There are stories, the "Schlagsville USA" episode in Five is "Summer of '72," the "Dennis of the Jungle" picture story this time has hapless Dennis entangled with a snake, an elephant, and a spanker; "Brad McGregor's Back Woods Adventure" continues, and there are other stories, cartoons, and art pages—a total of 48 busy pages plus covers.

To get a complete list of Man's Hand offerings, write: Man's Hand Films, 633 Post St. #500, San Francisco, CA 94109.

Part Two: Splash.

Isn't no splash sexier than golden splash, and the Water Boys of San Diego know it. Water Boys of SD's Fall '93 newsletter—Number 3—is 60 pages, every one of them piss drenched (metaphorically speaking). They give you piss poetry (not so yummy), piss art (very cool) by The Hun, Rex, and others, plus the obvious piss fiction (wet and fun). The piss non-fiction in #3 includes a remembrance of growing up among the Boy Scouts (even Scouts do it, and piss as well) and a brief, but informative article on catheters.

Maybe the A-Number-One value of the Water Boys of SD newsletter is its offering of a range of contact options between any ready, such as yourself and any number of other like minded, wet-headed individuals, places, events, and resources. There's a WB call-in line, an info line (619) 280-6314, Extension PISS], an upcoming BBS, news of yellow hanky beer busts, plus ads for wet subject art, supplies, and other publications. Leather ads and leathersex attitude abound here, especially in the classified ads and the art.

Part Three: Sizzle.

The sizzle this month comes in stages, video, travel, and poetry. I had the bizarre pleasure and twisted honor of working with Jim Wigler and Daddy L on a video that, I believe, is to be the first in a series. The tape(s) are Daddy L's Lessons, and this first one is called "Lesson #1, Ropes and Spanking." If you liked Scott on the cover of Drummer #162, you probably also saw and enjoyed him in Jim Wigler's first video, "Frenzy." He was super-hot there, and his segment was the best in the tape, no two ways about it. In "Ropes and Spanking" he's there from beginning to end—licking boots and butt, sucking pirs and cock, being tied and spanked and padded this way and that—and he's better than ever.

Wigler, it turns out, has an excellent eye for motion and action. If "Ropes" is not perfect (and what porn video is? Answer below), it's still hot, very hot. Scott tied up and explored by Wigler's camera. Scott paddled red and examined by Wigler's close-up lens. Scott and muscle-hunk Richard as the Top, both of them getting off will get you off. Maybe, just maybe, the tape will also teach you Daddy L's First Lesson.

Scott

To get "Ropes," send the usual age statement and $49.95 to Daddy L, 1174 Howard St., San Francisco, CA 94103.

The Answer Tape. Remember the question is what porn tape ever was perfect? The answer is None. But... yes, the latest EuroMen release, "Chain Gang Lust" is as nearly perfect as any SM tape is likely to be, ever. This tape has the hottest collection of European SM players you can imagine, including Tom of Hamburg. It has the finest single-tailed whip scene ever shot on film or tape, Tom slashing at a stunning, muscular bottom's back till even his strongest, Germanic, steely stoicism gives way, and his blood is flowing freely. The tape has piss, slapping, fisting (hot, hot, hot!), and power-play upon power-play.

Sadly, "Chain Gang" is unlikely to be released in or mailed to the USA (by EuroMen). Don't let that stop you. If any tape will ever be worth a trip to Europe, this is it. EuroMen is not likely to be able to sell you this tape, as I said, but you might want to check with them about where to pick it up, or have someone pick it up for you, in Europe.

More on Europe a bit later. Meantime, two tapes which are very available on the US market ought to be mentioned.

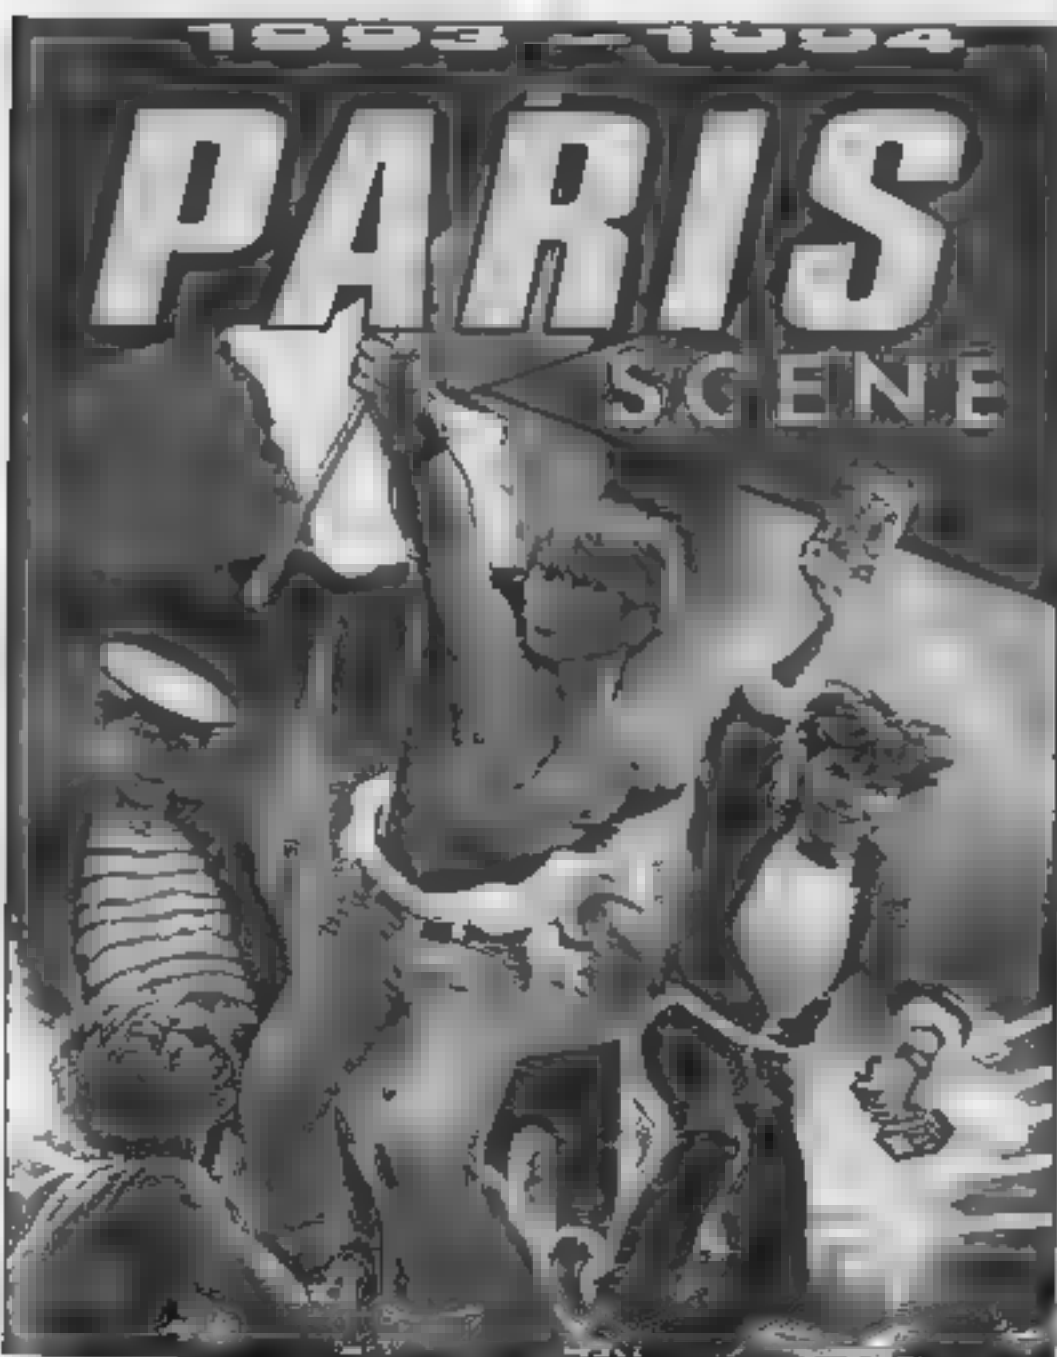

First, BIC has released a new sampler, "BIC Review 3," with very short clips of 37 tapes. Let me repeat that, "very short clips of 37 tapes." This is not like Zeus Studios' marvelous "Cum-a-Thon" where you get enough of each tape to "tide you over," it's a video catalog of videos--nothing more than a quick-glance menu. If you want to shop body types, uniforms, ages, sex styles, or types of action before springing for/investing in full length tapes, "Review 3" may be useful for you. Check out which titles have cops, redheads, muscle bods, fur, or whatever. Look to see which man or boy you like is in which tapes you haven't yet seen, etc.

Get "BIC Review 3" by sending the usual age statement and $19.95 to BIC, 1043 University Ave., Suite 222, San Diego, CA 92103-3392.

Second US tape, Falcon's "Basic Plumbing." This is not a leathersex video by any stretch of the imagination, but it's excellent, and not at all what you'd expect. It's smooth bodies, of course, in the Falcon tradition, but the hottest collection of bodies Falcon has ever put together. The sweaty bulges in the title sequence alone are worth the price of the tape. It's all sucking and fucking, jerking off and dildos, but it's delicious. What's more, the clever but tiny plot about a struggling plumbing shop turning into a successful call boy service also works better than it has any right to do.

Special Note: There's a hunk in Basic Plumbing who obviously has no parents. Barry Howard has to have stepped straight out of a classic Colt fantasy drawing.

The travel guide portion of the sizzle is provided by Gay Men's Press in England, but you'll have no trouble checking these titles out in the USA. So far, two of GMP's series of guides are out: Paris Scene 1993-1994 and Northern [England] Scene. The latter is undated, but was released this year.

Gay City Guide to Paris by The Gay Men's Press travel. On the other hand, if you're going to Europe, the sp'cy details in these guides may lead you to include Northern England in your plans, and they'll certainly brighten your visit to France's City of Lights.

The time has come, the reviewer said, to speak of many things, of genders and windows and becoming wise, of sex and truth and lies. And the language of such a discussion has to be poetry. Actually, what I'm thinking of now is one book of poetry, Special Deliveries, and one poet's diary, Androgyne Journal. Both books are by James Broughton, a genius of San Francisco fame and world importance.

Androgyne Journal has been around since 1977, but never in so fine an edition as the one in current release from Broken Moon Press at just $10.00. The journal is not a leather book on its surface, not at all, but it is a book I believe every thinking leatherman will be moved by, and powerfully. It is a diary of inner travel, self-discovery, sexual super-awakening, and the struggle to relate honestly and directly to life itself. Any leatherman who doesn't see a useful "map" in that is already a saint, or is doomed to dangerous foolishness.

Special Deliveries is the poet, James Broughton, himself. That is, the book is his poetry, "new and selected," from many decades of alternating wisdom and wonder, god-like power and child-like awe.

Why do I tell you, powerful and mature readers of Drummer about

James Broughton author of Special Deliveries

Broken Moon Press releasing Special Deliveries and Androgyne Journal? Because I am a leatherman, not unlike yourselves, and I enjoy Broughton. I am shredded and reconstructed, entertained and re-invigorated, given vision and made joyful by the ruthless gentleness and unrelenting love Broughton batters me with. Come, find a kindred spirit in a surprising mode, read James Broughton.

FOR ACTION

George Kromidas stepped out of the showers and padded gingerly across the locker room to where Brad was waiting. He was soaked. Drenched. His heavy coat of thick black body hair was plastered to his olive skin like fur on a wet sea otter, sensuously accenting all the peaks, valleys and chiseled edges of his hard, muscled body.

The dense mat was everywhere. Every-fucking-where! Some parts forearms, legs, pecs, armpits, the center strip of his stomach, the small of his back to the crack of his ass, his pubic patch -- were more lush and overgrown than others but there wasn't a single area without some hair growing from it. Even his toes had little tufts sprouting from them.

"You ever shave anyone before?" he asked, nervously eyeing all the accoutrements of his pending ordeal spread out on a nearby bench. "I mean....all over?"

"I've got a couple of buddies who are serious bodybuilders. I'm always shaving them for contests," Brad replied. He reached over and squeezed a brawny shoulder. "Hey, relax, it won't hurt a bit. You might even get to like it."

Brad knew he was going to like it. He'd dreamed of getting his hands on the 5'8", 170 pound wrestler ever since the guy showed up at try-outs. He sensed a mutual attraction but it wasn't until late that very afternoon when the opportunity to find out presented itself. Ironically, it was the coach who provided the opportunity.

It had been a particularly grueling workout and, as usual, Kromidas bore the brunt of the coach's post-practice tirade. Brad's heart went out to the depressed grappler and he found himself wishing he could gather the humpy 170 pounder in his arms and shield him from the coach's wrath. He was thinking that once he had the furry hunk in his arms he could soothe his bruised and battered ego by whispering soft words of encouragement in his ear while running his fingers through the thick mat of luxurious black hair covering the stud's magnificent body. He was thinking that from there it's be oh-so-simple to run his hands down to that perfect ass and pry those breathtaking, curved buttcheeks apart and slip his aching cock up that pretty pink shitchute and give him the fuck of his ever-loving life.

Brad was thinking, "Yeah, I'll get my hands on him -- when hell freezes over," when the coach suddenly bellowed, "It's all that hair, Kromidas. That hair all over your body. It makes you look like a man. You see, on my team only men have hair on their body so I just naturally assumed...But hey, that's okay, I got things figured out now. I ain't going to mistake you for a man again. If you're going to wrestle like a baby and cry like a baby then you're damn-well going to look like a baby! Brad-- yeah, I'm talking to you!--shave him! You heard me, shave every last hair off Kromidas' body. Chest, back, legs, ass, pubes, head, even his goddamneycrowns. I want Kromidas smooth as a baby's butt by tomorrow's practice. And you're to keep shaving him until I decide he's wrestling like a man. When he wrestles like a man, he can have hair like a man."

Brad looked at the dripping wet hunk and thought, "A baby he's not." He gave the shoulder another squeeze and said, "Let's do the easy stuff first."

Using a little foam, a safety razor and a technique honed over dozens of shaves, Brad quickly stripped Kromidas' hands, arms, shoulders and back of its pelt. A series of well executed strokes turned the man into an arresting study of contrasts: a clash of smooth bare skin and thick black hair.

The head next. From the back, up over the sides and crown and down to the forehead, the flashing blade made short shrift of the trendy, salon-styled mane. Not even in Marine boot camp had a scalp ever been so closely or completely shorn. A couple of strokes and the eyebrows were gone, too.

Brad stepped back to admire his handiwork. To his credit, there wasn't a nick or leftover stubble anywhere on the man's head. It was as clean and smooth as a grunt's helmet. And twice as sexy.

Sensing a momentary respite, Kromidas hesitantly reached up for a feel. "How's it—oh, fuck." He stood and peered into a nearby mirror. "Oh, fuck....I look like a geek." Tears welled in his eyes. "Coach hates me, he really hates my guts."

"He doesn't hate you," admonished Brad. "This is his way of motivating you, of making you work harder."

"By humiliating me? By turning me into a geek?"

Brad grabbed Kromidas by the shoulders and growled in his face, "Who says you look like a geek? With or without hair you're a fucking hot man. And the only way you can be humiliated is if you yourself allow it. Remember that!"

"Yes, Sir."

"Okay. Now hit the showers. Wash off that crap and then we'll start on your chest."

Two minutes later Kromidas was once again standing dripping wet in front of Brad. He was still glum but his anger and humiliation was tempered now with a sense of gritty defiance. Taking a deep breath, he looked Brad right in the eye and pointedly asked, "Do you really think I'm a fucking hot man?"

Brad's heart leapt to his mouth but he managed to maintain eye contact. "Yes, I really do."

"Good. I think you're hot, too." He thrust out his chest and said, "Let's do it."

Applying the foam gave Brad the chance to finally get his hands on the wide expanse of Kromidas' sculpted pecs. No doubt about it, they were masterpieces of male musculature.

"I, uh...like working my chest," murmured Kromidas. It came out more like an apology than a statement of fact.

"No shit," snorted Brad. He grinned at the embarrassed stud and playfully grabbed a handful of left pec. "Keep up the good work. The bigger and harder, the better."

Kromidas relaxed and shyly grinned back. Then, in a surprisingly bold move for him, he suddenly flexed so that the pec under Brad's hand contracted into a thick, solid slab of bulging, molded muscle. "Hard enough for you?"

Brad gave the peaked mound an extensive tactile examination and proclaimed, "Sure impresses me all to hell!"

The pec wasn't the only part of Kromidas' anatomy to solidify. The hunk's stubby uncut dick had turned into a decent 7 inch, fat-as-a-beercan, tantalizing piece of manmeat with a foreskin so long it still covered most of the plump, rounded cockhead.

Brad was tempted, mighty tempted, to make a grab for the thick piledriver, knowing that was what Kromidas wanted him to do. But it's always more interesting to keep a suitor off-balance, he thought, and besides, he truly wanted to spend as much time as possible with the hot and humpy man. Still, he had to admit it was time for a change of tact. A radical change of tact.

He hurriedly finished coating the chest and abs with foam (it was a kick, no other way to describe it, how the stud sucked in his breath when he got down to the edges of his pubic patch) and then, before Kromidas really knew what he was doing, wiped the foam from the two baby-soft, quarter-sized nipples and gave them a good hard pinch.

"OWW! What the heck was that for?"

"To get your nipples hard. Now they'll pop right up and I'll be able to spot them without any trouble. Wouldn't want me to accidentally slice them off, would you?"

This is something Kromidas hadn't considered. "No," he mumbled, clearly imagining the worst. His naivete was disarming.

"I thought not. See? What'd I tell you? All nice and big and hard. Couldn't miss these babies now. Still, you know, maybe I'd better do it again. Just to be on the safe side." Brad knew he was pushing his luck. He fully expected Kromidas to put a stop to his blatant sexploitation.

But the goodlooking grappler didn't say a word. Not when Brad took the puckered, dark brown rosettes in his fingertips, squeezed them, and kept on squeezing them. Not when he tightened his grip and slowly rotated the tits back and forth like radio dials. Not even when he dug his thumbnails into the tender, virgin flesh and caused what must have been excruciating pain to a tit novice like Kromidas (of course, it is difficult to say anything through tightly clenched teeth). Nope, not a word.

Brad released the tortured tits and nodded in appreciation. Good, very good. He noted, too, that the foreskin on Kromidas' bloated, throbbing cock was fully retracted now and a large drop of pre-cum had formed at the pisshole. Even better. This kid would go far. He smiled slightly, brushed the backs of his fingers against the perky red nips (nice how Kromidas winced) and said matter-of-factly, "Sure won't miss these babies now."

"No, guess not. Thanks, Brad."

"My pleasure." Satisfied, Brad picked up the razor and went back to work.

The size and hardness of the broad, sweeping chest would have made shaving relatively easy if it weren't for the incredible density of the thick hair growing on it. It was like hacking through jungle. Instead of a few long strokes Brad was forced to use a series of short, choppy ones. Instead of mowing great swaths he had

Just as Kromidas was now.

"How ya doing?" Brad asked, drawing the flat of his hand lightly across the magnificent bare chest and abs.

"I'm okay," whimpered Kromidas.

Bullshit. He was a cocked pistol with a hair trigger. His whimper down-geared to a deep moan when Brad continued lower and wrapped his fingers tightly around the thick piledriver. "Now comes the fun part," Brad smirked, giving the dick a squeeze.

As long as Kromidas stayed relaxed, shaving the bulk of his legs was relatively easy. Because of their beefy dimensions, each pull of the razor sliced a good-sized strip of hair and foam from the furry hindquarters. It was only when he choked, when the stress got to him and he tensed, causing his thighs and calves to bunch into tightly-wound cables that shaving became difficult. All the peaks, valleys, curves and sharp edges made a clean sweep virtually impossible and half the battle became just getting the stud to ease up. Not a bad job, either, considering it meant a certain amount of leg massage and butch "Hey, relax, man" buddy-talk.

By the time Brad got up off his knees the only hair Kromidas had left on his humpy, muscular body was on his ass, at his groin, and in a thin strip between his legs joining the two. It was almost as if he were wearing a tiny bikini brief, except the "fabric" of this model did nothing to hide his privates.

"Bend over and spread your legs." The words almost caught in Brad's throat. "Wider. Yeah, lean on the bench for support. Wider. Yeah, that's it. I wanna see your crack split wide open."

"Like this, Sir?"

"Perfect." Deliberately gripping one of the hairy buttocks so that his thumb rested on the puckered pink asshole, Brad went to work on the upturned bubblebutt. The tight little buns were so smooth and hard, their texture as soft and lustrous as satin with not a mark or blemish to mar their surface that they were, without a doubt, the epitome of Grade-A prime ass. A joy to shave, they were nothing short of gut-wrenching to touch. Absolutely gut-wrenching.

And the more Brad fussed with the razor, cutting away more and more of the curly black fleece, the less subtle he became massaging the puckered orifice. He kept up the pressure (breaking only to suck his thumb to get it wet) until, at about the same time he got the last of the butthair, Kromidas let out a moan, his hole relaxed, and Brad's thumb slid all the way in. "Atta boy."

Wasting no time, Brad went right to work doing a thumb-fucking number on the beautiful splayed ass before him. Between jabbing in and out, twisting back and forth, and ricocheting around the rim of the sensitive sphincter, it wasn't long before he had Kromidas in the throes of Ass Heaven. Deliberately waiting until the stud was mere seconds away from blowing his wad he suddenly pulled out, gave the tensed ass a hard slap and ordered, "Up on the bench, facing me, kiddo. Time for your short and curlies."

Kromidas was so revved and close to coming, the abrupt pull-out damn-near sent him into a convulsive tail-spin. It took a lot of effort and will-power to pull himself together, haul his quivering ass up onto the bench and stand tall. "Ready, Sir," he panted. Yeah, he was ready, alright.

"Spoken by a man." Holding onto Kromidas' thick, fat prick to keep it out of harm's way, Brad went to work on the dense black bush at the man's groin. All the while the shining blade went scrape, scrape, scrape and gobs of foam and black hair were landing splat, splat, splat he kept pounding away on the throbbing pud. It was great how the thick foreskins slid back and forth along the pulsing rod, bunching up at the base to expose the fat, glistening cockhead to scrape away at the coat in small sections. It wasn't particularly difficult but, fuck, it was time consuming.

"WOULDN'T WANT ME TO ACCIDENTLY SLICE THEM OFF, WOULD YOU?"

Not that Brad was complaining. By slowing down and concentrating on what he was doing he heightened the tension and prolonged the experience. It was a real turn-on to slowly strip away a proud adult male's proof of manhood and leave him with smooth, boyish skin. Even better when the stripping away revealed an ultra-defined body of Herculean proportions.

There was something else, too. Something which Brad always found made any shaving scene a compelling exercise in eroticism. It doesn't matter how strong and confident a hairy man is, remove his fur, his outward badge of masculinity, and he is left exposed, vulnerable and malleable. Physically and mentally.

and then sliding back over the end of it.

Brad could have kept pumping away like that for hours if he didn't have more to keep him busy. "Here, hold your cock up out of the way, Kromidas," he said.

"Ah, er...excuse me, Sir, but what are you doing?"

Brad looked up and quite innocently asked, "What does it look like I'm doing?"

"Well, Sir, it...uh, looks like you're holding my balls, Sir."

"Right again, Kromidas. Coach said to shave everything so that's what I'm doing. Geez, Kromidas, you've got the hairiest damn balls I've ever seen." Brad collared the sac so the nuts bunched together tight at the bottom and started in with the razor. "Yup, real hairy."

"I'm sorry, Brad." Kromidas swallowed hard as the blade slid over his bulging pouch.

"Nothing to apologize for, stud. Why, I'm a big fan of hairy balls. It's a real shame you're going to lose yours. The hair, that is, not the balls. But then (and here Brad winked up at the rigid man), I'm a big fan of smooth balls, too."

"That's, ah, nice to know."

"Steady, Kromidas. Steady."

Once the sizable nutsac was clean as a whistle and smooth as silk, Brad tugged and twisted it a couple of times (pleased how Kromidas silently accepted the treatment) and said, "Not bad, stud, if I do say so myself. Don't worry, we're almost finished. Only one place left. Right between your legs. Best way to do it is for you to lay on your back and lift your legs up."

Kromidas was long past questioning orders. On his back, his legs to his chest, he offered his puckered pink hole in a clear act of submission and raging desire. He wanted to be exposed and wide open. He wanted to be fucked, wanted it bad. And he wanted it from Brad.

"There. All finished." Brad set the razor down and admired both his handiwork and his "canvas". His cock throbbed in wanton anticipation as his eyes devoured the pretty pink asshole and pulsing cum-dripping cock, feasting on the dense musculature rippling under the smooth, freshly-shorn skin, marvelled at the handsome face and striking bare head, and fell for the pleading puppydog eyes looking up at him. The man was a knock-out, an absolute fucking knock-out.

"Fuck me, Sir," begged Kromidas. "I've been dreaming of having your cock in me for a long time. Please don't make me wait for it any longer. I want it, I want it bad. And I know you want to do it. So do it, Brad. Do it now. Fuck me. Fuck me hard and fuck me long! Please!"

Who could resist such an insistent invitation? Brad stripped off his gym shorts and jock, grabbed a condom and bottle of lube from his gym bag and knelt before Kromidas' wide-spread legs and hungry hole. He rolled on the latex, squeezed out some gel and eased into place. Kromidas was so hot to trot that all Brad needed was one short, cocerted push and he slipped in all the way to his cum-laden nuts, damn-near tripping his own trigger in the process. "Holy fucking geezus!" he gasped.

"Omigod! Oh fuck, that feels good," moaned Kromidas. "It feels incredible! Even better than I'd dreamed it would feel! Yeah, now do it, Brad. Give me your cock! Give me your big man's cock! Fuck me! Fuck the living daylights out of me!"

So Brad fucked him. And it was a great fuck, too. A really great, fucking wonderful fuck! Brad hit his stride early and became a wild, sex-crazed animal. His cock pounded Kromidas' super-tight shitchute in a dazzling, mind-blowing variety of heart-stopping, toe-curling strokes. One minute short and rapid-fire, the next, long and luxuriously drawn-out. Brad amazed even himself, it was so great. Absolutely fucking...

AH! AH!! AAAHHHHHHHHH!!!!

Kromidas suddenly started bucking and thrashing around like a hog-tied heifer, going apeshit right out of control.

His throbbing piledriver, without so much as a finger on it, started blasting out big cumwads so thick and fast they went WAP! WAP! WAP! on his heaving chest. "AH! AH! Oh yes, Sir! That's it! Oh fuck, THAT'S IT! YESSSS!"

Two seconds later — BAM! — the hot ass that was clamped around Brad's dick pushed him right over the edge. A monumental explosion went off in his nuts and he lost it, totally lost it, in one of the hardest, most intense orgasms of his whole life. It didn't let up until every last drop of cum had been squeezed from his balls and he'd been left drained, exhausted and utterly spent. "AAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHH..."

A wash in the afterglow of their first fuck, Kromidas pulled Brad tight against him as they bearhugged on the locker room floor. He heaved a deep sigh of relief and said dreamily, "You're right. I could really get to like this shaving thing. I could get to like it so much I might never have hair again."

"No complaints from me on that score," replied Brad, running an appreciative hand over the broad slabs of smooth pec-muscle rising and falling next to him. "It's gonna be a pleasure keeping you stripped and ready for action."

"Mmmmm, let's hear it for action," Kromidas murmured, just before giving Brad a long, lingering, passion-filled kiss. When he finally came up for air, he grinned mischievously and added, "Who knows, it might even help my wrestling." ■

LEATHER PRIDE RAN HIGH!

Creating Daddies & Other Fantasies

by Jack Rinella

There's a metaphysical premise that says something to the effect that manifestations are created by the union of ideas and emotions. The same concept is held in philosophical circles when they postulate that all things are made of form and energy.

In leather we do the same thing, it's just that our terms aren't as academic. We spend time, money, and energy to make our ideas, our fantasies, real. Our language, unfortunately, is prejudicial. The term fantasy has the general sense of being fantastic, fictional, unreal, whereas in the leather community, I think we use it more in the sense of imagination or creative idea.

A leather "scene" is an idea that we have, usually share with others, and then create by acting out in some way. The original idea will most likely go through several refinements as we negotiate its execution, but happily it will eventually become "real", whatever the Hell "reality" is!

This leather metaphysics applies to our entire subculture.

To be honest, I believe that this "idea, energy, manifestation" process belongs to all life, but I'll leave that discussion for the New Age gurus and high church theologians to debate.

In its fullest and most beautiful sense, leather is recreational. First, it is recreation: fun, enjoyment, relaxation, play. In its fundamental sense it is recreation: "we re-create", bringing forth new and different "realities" if only for the duration of a "scene".

I use the word scene to include more than just a short, escapist, or artificial "play" time. While it can include those kinds of experiences, I also use it to include major life changes, temporary forays into alternate personalities, and events, roles, and relationships of all kinds.

As Shakespeare wrote "All the world's a stage." we play parts, even writing the script as we go. By the decision we make we create our lifestyle. That creation, of course, is dependent on more than just the big decisions. In the long run, small, seemingly insignificant choices can have large impacts.

A "chance" stop at a bar may mean a career change. Writing a letter may develop into a cross country move. Or none of that may transpire. If we don't venture, we don't gain.

There's a story going around that some editor, finding himself older, grayer, and less in demand, started to publish stories of older men and their "boys". The idea caught on and Daddies became as popular as the "pretty boys of GQ."

This isn't meant to denigrate Daddies or any other kind of fantasy. To say that the Sears Tower was once a fantasy is merely to admit the truth. There was a time, not really so long ago, that a 102 story building was nothing more than an idea in a developer's mind. A great deal of thought and energy, in the form of money, material, and hordes of hunky construction workers, went into manifesting that idea as reality.

The Daddy stories and pictures in the pages of Drummer are fodder for the brain. As they arouse our feelings, we put ourselves into the "work" of realizing the fantasy. We see ourselves as "Daddies" or "boys", place ads, cruise bars, act the way we fantasize, and eventually, with the right combination of idea and energy, it happens.

I don't have any biological sons, but Jim calls me "Dad". It is a created reality that we agreed to almost 10 years ago. Early in the development of our relationship, we talked about what each of us wanted and didn't want, agreed to certain limits, and left who and how we would be with each other open for growth and change. Within a week he was calling me "Dad" every time I fucked him. The name and the new reality stuck.

Such is life. Once we understand the process, we have the ability to create whatever fantasies we wish, if only the idea be clear enough and the energy strong enough. The beauty of leather is that it affords us the opportunity to develop our fantasies, affords us the structures, resources, milieu, and men necessary to make our dreams come true.

Master, slave, cowboy, policeman, Dad, son...Leather men? Why doesn't every fantasy come true?

I can't answer each specific "failure" with a specific reason, but in all cases the over-riding reason is the same: either the idea is unclear or the energy insufficient. It's my experience that the world, the leather world included, is full of "wanna-bes".

Wanna-bes think they want to be such and such, but fail to take into account the work required to become what they want to be. I don't want to sound critical. We are complex beings, socialized, regimented, and sanitized in such a way that by the time we are ten, we are full of contradiction, phobia, and failure.

What we think of ourselves creates a living image based on our self-perceptions. The little train that could, did, because it thought it could. Without the belief that we can accomplish some feat we are most apt not to try, or to try halfheartedly and fail. The number one evil we need to fight is poor self-esteem.

There is more, of course, to fantasy realization than mere attempt. There needs to be clarity, dedication, belief, and appropriate effort. As my grandmother used to say, "Roma wasn't built at once." The process takes time.

I still remember the first time I asked Jim to go home with me. He said, "No". It wasn't the right night, I needed to bide my time. A week later, when asked the same question he said, "Yes". It was another week before I had my boy.

Even that process wasn't as simple as it sounds. My original idea was to be his Master. After two nights of what I thought was really good SM sex, Jim wanted to talk. His fantasy included me, but didn't include the pain that was part of my trip. For the fantasy of our relationship to come more fully into existence, the idea had to change, become more clear.

So we "negotiated" what could and would not be in our relationship. We committed ourselves to being together and to being intimate, but not to being Master and slave. We continued to date, to discuss, and to fuck. Together we created a relationship with meaning, joy, and fulfillment. He got the Dad I got the son.

I recently had a conversation with a Mr. International Leather titleholder. An experienced leather man, I had only just met him. As we talked, he admitted to a fact that was both startling and honest; he had decided to become a titleholder and once he made that decision, he re-created himself into the image of what he thought that meant. Happily, once he had become what he fantasized, the IML judges agreed and awarded him the title.

I guess I thought the leather contest winners were just born that way. That they somehow sat around and decided to win and did. But winning is no accident. It takes commitment, patience, effort, talent, and guts. You become a titleholder by becoming a titleholder. Like every other achievement, it doesn't fall into your lap.

What was surprising to me was that he had approached his potential accomplishment as a "project" that involved working out, acquiring and wearing the right clothes, learning the best leather techniques, meeting the right people, transforming his own image into that of a contest-winning leather man. It was something he had planned.

There he sat sharing with me, comfortable with his deserved success, his fantasy realized, his "new" self as natural and as real as any other.

By the same process, people become doctors and lawyers, parents and painters, writers, actors, friends. What applies to life applies to all aspects of life.

What is your fantasy? What are you doing to make it real?

More importantly, what are you willing to do to make it real?

It's no secret that Drummer Classifieds are probably the most favorite sections of this magazine. They are fodder for our fantasies. As such, they are three or four lines of idea and a bit of effort. They are a great place to start on making the relationship of our dreams come true, but they are only a start.

Being a wanna-be is only a starting point for realization and fulfillment. We all know guys who don't get past the starting gate. They really don't know what they want, make only halfhearted attempts at getting there, and usually blame their failure on some force outside of their own life, supposedly out of their own control.

Most of us know guys who want to make changes in their lives. They want a better job, nicer apartment, more friends, better body. The list can go on forever. They never make the change.

Most are generally content as we are but would like some kind of basic life improvement. Some of us are genuinely disappointed with our lives.

Invariably we know guys who want to find the "love" of a lifetime, be he Master, slave, Top, bottom, boy or bear. Their conversation is riddled with failure, depression, despair, they think they can't ever meet the right guy. The bars are too phony, the ads don't work, no one's ever interested. If they do meet someone, it never seems to work out.

So how do you become a Daddy, a boy, a contest winner? What is the secret of creating your wildest scene? Your warmest relationship? Your heaviest fantasy?

Last month I hinted at the way when I wrote: "For the key to finding what is within yourself. Look closely and lovingly at yourself and listen to your inner self as it tells you how to do it."

The closing lines are true but not very specific. Let me hone in on some ideas about fantasy creation.

Honesty is the best policy. Be honest with yourself and face up to who you really are and what you really want. Do you really want to do a certain scene or is your desire rooted in others' expectations? Are you doing something out of obligation or true desire? Let the real you emerge regardless of others' opinions.

Admit that you are a sadist, a masochist, a Top, bottom, or versatile. To your own self be true.

As you learn to appreciate the real you, you'll gain clarity about what you really want. Clarity means that the image of your fantasy, be it scene, relationship, expertise, achievement, or some other form of self-expression, becomes clear, well-defined, concrete.

As an example, it's not enough to say you want to have a slave. What kind of slave? How will he act, live, respond, perform? Use your imagination to "see" yourself as Master, as dominating, commanding. Get specific. Writing your thoughts down and reading them later helps you to form a visual, expanded, and definitive image of your fantasy.

Make a plan. Set yourself goals, such as to meet so many new friends, learn certain techniques, have specific experiences. Look at your ultimate goal, such as to get fisted, and divide it into achievable steps, such as to learn to take a bigger dildo, join a fisting club, or read a book on anal sex.

Be open to seeing how the fantasy develops. Don't lock you dream in a straight jacket. Instead, let it be flexible and let it move you in a comfortable, easy fashion. Be willing to redefine it along the way, as you learn more about it, as you learn more about yourself.

There's the need for a delicate balance here. Go through life with no expectations, on the one hand, while you set real goals and objectives, on the other.

The "no expectations" scenario allows you the freedom to enjoy the whole universe and all that the world throws at you. It opens you to surprise, to discovery, to growth, even as the "real goals and objectives" give you something to live for, something to aim at and work for.

The story about Edison's failure at inventing the light bulb illustrates that he learned a thousand ways how not to do it. In the same light, there are no failures if we perceive our attempts as a learning process. A disappointing scene holds a lot of information about how to do it differently next time.

And there will be a next time. There have been literally dozens of men who have come in and out of my life, professing that they wanted to be my slave. None of them can claim that title right now. In every circumstance, as the fantasy approached reality, it was found to be lacking in satisfaction for me or for him. Consequently we took different paths and moved on to look elsewhere to fulfill our goals.

But when the experiment was over I had learned a bit more about whom I wanted and how I wanted him. I had learned more about my ability to dominate, and how I needed to become more dominant.

When I first met Jim, I wanted him for a slave. Two years later, he's made me the Dad I always longed to be and I wouldn't have him any other way. His "bratty, teenage" ways, his staunch independence, his unique perceptions, sly grin, and mocking laugh would never fit a slave's life. But that's OK.

He's helped me create a Daddy role and there's still room for that slave.

The nice thing about fantasies is that there is no end to them. The nice thing about life is that it can hold as many fantasies as you like.

Have a great month. Thanks for reading.

Even in his sleep, he felt her standing over him. Waking with a start, he saw cold gray eyes, dull black hair in a tight bun, and a sagging plump body in a crisp white uniform. Her shadow covered him, chilling him like a draft of cold air. "Doctor will see you now."

"Thank you." Asa coughed, wiping his nose on the back of his hand. He looked up at the nurse bashfully. "I hope I wasn't snoring. It's these damn antihistamines. I even fell asleep at work this morning..."

She gave him a frosty, thin-lipped grin. "No need to explain. Are you finished?"

He followed her eyes to the clipboard balanced on his lap—he was supposed to be updating his medical history. "Sure," he said, and handed her the chart.

"Follow me, please."

She led him through a faceless door and into a narrow hallway. The overhead lights were yellow, the linoleum a generation out of style. At the end of the hall she opened a door.

Asa squeezed past her into the examination room. In the center stood a table with white naugahyde cushions and a roll of stiff translucent paper. The base was a pale shade of green as out-of-date as the linoleum in the hall. Cabinets of the same ancient green metal lined the farthest wall. The upper row had glass doors, revealing canisters full of tongue depressors, cotton balls, and gauze. A sparkling white sink with its tall curved faucet, an old-fashioned scale, and a small desk with a low swivel chair took up the left-hand wall. On one side of the door hung a mirror and a row of chrome pegs. The right-hand wall was papered with a collage of ghastly diagrams depicting bodily functions.

"Go ahead and get undressed. Doctor will join you in a moment," the nurse said.

"Thank you."

She stood watching him until he closed the door on her.

After he heard her walk away, he pulled off his sweater and shirt. The air was cool; his skin went instantly to goose flesh. He slipped off his hiking boots and dropped his pants. Wearing just his white socks and Hanes briefs, he hung the rest of his clothes on pegs.

Shivering, he hopped up on the table, the stiff paper crinkling under his bum. Swinging his legs like a kid, he hummed along with the Muzak: "What do you get when you doo doo doo...you get enough germs to...doo doo doo..." Voices

THE GOOD DOCTOR PART ONE

By Matthew Walker Illustration By R.A. Shultz

outside the door stopped him:

"This is the last of the day, Doctor," the nurse was saying. "It's my bingo night, so I'll be going."

"Fine, Nurse. See you in the morning."

With a soft click, the door opened. Doctor MacGregor walked in, but not the stoop-shouldered, gray-haired horse doctor Asa remembered from his last visit. No, this was a tall handsome stud with a blaze of orange-red hair and a full, trimmed beard to match. His broad shoulders and barrel chest threatened to burst the white, short-sleeved smock he wore, and his trousers were not quite baggy enough to obscure the full hard curves of his ass, thighs, and calves. His huge hands were ham-pink from frequent scrubbing. Bright hairs spread like flames over the backs of them and covered his thick forearms like the fur of a sun bear. Asa cupped his hands over his crotch to hide a sudden stiffening.

The doctor took the clipboard with Asa's chart from a hook on the outside of the door. He kicked the door closed. "Well, what have we here?" he said, scrunching his big body into the little swivel chair.

"Just a little cold," Asa said, sniffing as if to prove it. "But the damn thing won't go away."

The doctor gave him a reassuring smile. His deep green eyes sparkled with sympathy and good humor. "Well, let's see if we can't do something about that. First, I'd like to do a rather complete checkup. Since you haven't been here in a while."

"Sure," Asa said. He wiped his nose on the back of his hand. "By the way, I know it has been a while, but did you somehow get younger?"

MacGregor smiled. "You're thinking of my father. He retired to play golf and complain about my mother full time."

"Same as my dad. Must be in the retiree rule book along with moving the waistline of your Bermuda shorts right up under your tits." Blushing at his choice of words, Asa coughed delicately behind his hand.

Smiling, MacGregor said, "And wearing them with black socks." He motioned Asa toward the scale. "A hundred and sixty-one" was the good doctor's final verdict. "You've lost quite a bit since your last visit. It looks great on you, too, if you don't mind me saying so."

Asa turned self-effacing. "Thanks. Really?" If he was fishing for a bigger compliment, he netted a whale:

"No, really," the doctor said. "You must take a great workout. You've got some wonderful development in your arms and shoulders." MacGregor's hand stroked Asa's back. It came to rest on his left shoulder, where it seemed to spread a dry warmth. His other hand squeezed and caressed each part of Asa's body as MacGregor cited the muscle groups. "Nice, tight abdominals. Great pectorals," he said, risking a quick pinch of Asa's stiff nipple. Finally, his hand came to rest on Asa's ass, the fingers gently squeezing each cheek through the ribbed cotton briefs. "Perfect gluteus. The best part of the whole package. Not an ounce of fat here."

Asa was speechless, torn between a simple "thank you" and an offer to bear MacGregor's children. A second passed, and MacGregor was all business again. "Let's see...date of birth in 'sixty-seven. That would make you twenty-five now?"

"Um, twenty-six last week."

MacGregor smiled sheepishly, making a mark on Asa's chart. "Oh, sure. Sorry—don't know what day it is most of the time. How about BP? Have a seat."

Doctor MacGregor hurried through a few more basics: he took Asa's blood pressure, looked into his ears and down his throat, listened to his chest. A thermometer perched under the patient's tongue registered one hundred degrees on the button. Reflexes were tested and soft tissue prodded until Asa felt like a hunk of USDA Prime.

Just when Asa thought he was ready for a packet of Sudafed and a kiss good-bye, the doctor said, "Okay, I guess you can drop the shorts."

Asa gulped, dreading the impending embarrassment. The moment his cock met the gently circulating air, its purple head poked through its lengthy foreskin, seeking attention. He felt his balls pulling tight against his body.

"I'll take those," the doctor said, extending his hand.

He took Asa's briefs and hung them on a

MacGregor pretended there was nothing unusual about having a pulsing cock climb up his arm during the "turn your head and cough" routine. For this Asa was grateful, until the MD patted the hefty member and said, "Looks like this muscle could use a workout once in a while, too, boy. You must not feed him enough; he looks hungry."

Asa barely had time to turn red from head to toe before MacGregor added, "Climb up on the table for me, will you? On all fours."

A warm, gloved, greasy finger soon worked its magic on Asa's ass. His cock was stiffer than bone, and MacGregor's prodding of his prostate unleashed a torrent of precome.

"I can feel that little fever you've got," MacGregor whispered. Soon a second finger joined the first, and Asa couldn't help bucking against the doctor's broad knuckles, craving more. "Yeah, it's really hot up there. Like a fucking furnace."

Asa moaned. "It's only gonna get hotter, man," he gasped, pushing harder against MacGregor's hand. "Jesus..."

Suddenly, the hand withdrew, leaving Asa bereft and empty. MacGregor snapped off the glove and tossed it into a wastebasket hidden in one of the cabinets. "I've got some more, um, sophisticated equipment in the room next door. Let's continue in there."

Without question, Asa obeyed. Still naked except for his socks, he followed MacGregor into the hall. The light seemed a shade yellower and a fraction darker than it had been before. Asa could see through an open door at the other end of the corridor that the nurse's station was empty and dark.

Doctor MacGregor unlocked the first door on the right. A bright pool of white light gathered over a glistening chrome examination table. The rest of the room faded into darkness; Asa could be sure only of that table, and his cock led him right to it. The narrow tabletop was a little lower than Asa's waist. It was hinged, so that the upper half could be raised and lowered. At its foot were stirrups.

MacGregor arranged Asa on his back with his feet in the stirrups. He stripped off Asa's socks, his warm hands gently ruffling the hair on the younger man's calves. Their eyes met, and Asa felt himself giving something away, felt himself consenting to something. To everything.

The doctor unrolled a fresh latex glove over his right hand. The glove he'd used in the other room had covered him to the wrist; this one stretched over his meaty forearm and past his elbow. MacGregor filled his bare hand with fresh clear lubricant from a pump and spread the glistening gel over the straining surface of the latex.

Smiling, MacGregor took his place between the stirrups and Asa's legs. He kept his eyes locked on Asa's as he found the hole with his gloved hand and resumed his "examination." Three fingers slipped easily into Asa's butt. The doctor spread them gently, stretching the burning ring of muscle.

In seconds, Asa's mind began whirling. Time grew pudgy and slow. The room teetered around him. With a stab of panic, he sat upright, his hand grasping for the doctor's. His fingers couldn't find a place on the slick latex; instead, he clasped MacGregor's shoulder.

"What did you... what did you give me?" His speech was slurred and breathy.

MacGregor shushed him, pushing him back against the table. "It's just a little alcohol mixed in with the lubricant," he explained, his voice quiet and full of reason. "It won't hurt you any more than a shot of whiskey." A second passed. "Or three. Relax."

Four fingers went in up to the knuckles. With a slow and easy touch, the doctor cajoled Asa's sphincter to open bit by bit. Watching the doctor's slow progress between his wide-splayed legs, Asa couldn't help obeying MacGregor's command to relax. His head spinning drunkenly with pleasure, he was soon enjoying the ride. His hand found its way from MacGregor's shoulder to his own cock. With his own precome serving as lube, he quickly brought the stiff hot pole to the boiling point.

One delicious push and the doctor's big hand filled Asa's fevered hole with warmth and hardness. The latex-coated fingers were thick and gentle as they slipped over Asa's silken interior. Stretching the hole seven heavenly ways, the good doctor made a fist and slowly twisted it. Asa's gaping sphincter closed around the doctor's wrist, either trying to spit it out or trap it inside forever.

Through the thick latex, Asa imagined he could feel every pore, every hair, every pulsing vein on the doctor's big hand. Asa's dick was so hard that he suspected it of growing another miraculous inch while he wasn't looking. A river of precome fed an ocean in his belly button.

The MD pushed deeper, the thickness of his forearm stretching the tight sphincter. Asa groaned, loving the depth of penetration.

"Anyone else ever taken you this way, fucker?" the doctor whispered. "Who else has had his fist up this whore's ass?"

"No one, Doctor," Asa gasped. "No one but you.... Sir."

MacGregor spread his hand and Asa took the sudden pain as a warning. "I swear it," he said, his eyes meeting the MD's. "No one but you."

Even more slowly than he'd entered, MacGregor pulled all the way out. The latex was smeared with pale brown goo. For a moment the raunch of ass slime filled the room; the smell was rich and deeply human against the sterile sharpness of disinfectant.

MacGregor worked a second glove over his left hand and covered it with lube. Linking both hands, he slowly entered Asa's hole with the huge column of flesh and bone. Incredulous, Asa watched his ass swallow both of the doctor's hands balled into one enormous fist.

The fullness was uncomfortable and yet so earthy, so utterly sensual and unutterably total, that Asa had no choice but to enjoy it. Closing his eyes, he pressed against MacGregor's fists, desperate to swallow the doctor whole. He felt the double fist in his brain, in his belly, in his heart, and in his cock.

Especially in his cock. As the doctor's mighty hands twisted wrist-deep inside him, Asa's dick gave up drooling and started spitting. He let go of it; the pleasure was too painful.

MacGregor carefully withdrew his left hand and pressed deeper with his right. "Stand up," he said, his voice a hoarse rasp.

"What?"

"Stand up. I want you to fuck yourself on my arm."

Lifting his feet out of the stirrups, Asa obeyed. As he shifted his weight to his feet, MacGregor's fist slipped deeper into Asa's ass by a fraction of an inch.

Slowly at first, then frantically, Asa fucked himself on the broad hand. Though MacGregor never let his hand go deeper than the wrist, Asa felt as though, when opened, the hand could grasp his heart.

Asa's fat, throbbing cock dangled centimeters from the doctor's face. Viscous streams of precome dribbled from its gaping pisshole into MacGregor's orange beard. Closing his eyes, the doctor licked the very tip of Asa's cock, then slipped his tongue under the foreskin. Asa quivered.

Just as Asa reached the verge of coming, it was all over. The doctor removed his hand from the gaping shithole and his tongue from the throbbing dickhead. Snapping off the rubber gloves, he stepped away.

Desperate for release, Asa turned and dropped to the cold surface of the table, humping his cock against the un-yielding metal. He felt the room spin again.

The doctor rolled a small trolley into the light. On a snow-white cloth lay a glittering assortment of instruments. With little effort, MacGregor flipped Asa onto his back. "I need you to remain very still," he said. "Can you do that?"

Asa groaned and panted, his mind racing as if in the grip of feverish delirium. His body twisted, his cock desperately fucking the air.

"I didn't think so," MacGregor said.

The doctor lifted the upper half of the table until it was nearly upright. Reaching underneath it, he latched it in place. He forced Asa's feet into the stirrups. Asa was in perfect position for giving birth: his ass perched on the bottom edge of the table, his legs spread wide with his knees almost against his chest.

With a flourish, MacGregor took six rolls of cloth bandages from a drawer on the side of the table. He held them between his fingers in a way that reminded Asa of jugglers and clowns.

Using two of the bandages, the doctor lashed his patient's feet into place on the stirrups. He wrapped each ankle as though for an injury, but included the stirrup in every other layer. When he was finished, Asa tested the bondage, finding it comfortable and more effective than he'd suspected.

MacGregor drew Asa's hands behind him and tied his wrists together with one end of a bandage. He wound the rest of the bandages around both Asa's body and the table. Working quickly, he overlapped the layers and pulled hard against the tabletop to keep the wrappings tight.

Asa was horny enough and just drunk enough to be extremely compliant. When MacGregor finished, Asa was pinned tightly to the table from his broad shoulders to his narrow waist.

One final touch: MacGregor pulled another roll of bandages from the drawer. The roll was thicker than Asa's own fat cock and longer than his middle finger. MacGregor used the roll like a pecker gag, slipping it deep into the younger man's mouth.

On the verge of panic, Asa clenched his lips and teeth tightly around the dry cloth. With the gag in place, he could breathe only through his one clear nostril, and the bandages were wrapped so tightly around his chest that he couldn't breathe deeply enough for comfort. Too late, he stretched against his bonds, willing the layers and layers of cloth to fall away, but he was helpless.

"You want it bad, don't you, boy?" the doctor said, taking Asa's dripping cock in his hand. A rivulet of precome oozed from the piss slit.

Relaxing, Asa remembered the moment when he had given his consent. He looked again into MacGregor's shining green eyes and nodded, resolving to trust that earlier instinct.

"Oh, yes, you want it bad," MacGregor said, smiling.

The good doctor peeled back the veined hood of Asa's cock and used a soapy cloth to scrub away a thin scum of cockcheese. Folding the cloth in on itself, he cleaned Asa's crotch from perineum to pubic hair. With a wad of gauze soaked in some kind of medicinal-smelling liquid he swabbed Asa's cock and balls, painting them brown.

Asa closed his eyes for a moment. Behind him he heard running water as the doctor washed his hands and the snap of latex as he slipped on fresh gloves. When Asa opened his eyes, MacGregor had in his hand some kind of instrument that resembled a pair of scissors. Locked in its blunt jaws was a beastly suture needle. Light danced along its curve.

Looking at the needle, MacGregor licked his lips. "I need you to understand that I choose my weapons with great care. There are two types of surgical needles—round needles and cutting needles. Both types have advantages. Cutting needles cause more bleeding, for example."

Asa swooned, gagging on the thick column of bandages in his mouth.

Heedless, MacGregor went on: "But even so, I prefer round needles for this. They're harder to push through and cause just a little more pain."

Asa whimpered, ashamed to feel tears gathering in his eyes. Again, he struggled vainly against the bandages binding him to the table.

"This particular needle," MacGregor said, holding it inches from Asa's face, "has a blunt point."

His head completely clear now, Asa made himself sit still as MacGregor, using his thumb and forefinger, drew Asa's foreskin over his stiff prick. A clamp with a triangular opening in its jaws held the hood closed while the doctor pressed the needle through both layers of skin. A little later, Asa gasped, feeling the silk thread pull through.

Asa closed his eyes again to stop his head from spinning. He concentrated on keeping his breath even and deep. He could hear it soughing raggedly through his one nostril. He tried not to feel the thread tugging at his skin.

When at last he looked, a tidy row of black stitches held half his foreskin tightly closed over the pulsing head of his cock. MacGregor was making a knot. With a few deft flicks of his fingers, the doctor tied the two ends of the thread together as though making an overhand knot with an extra twist, then he doubled them back twice to repeat the process. Securing the knot, the doctor snipped off the loose ends and discarded the needle.

Asa made himself watch as MacGregor again placed the forceps and forced a fresh needle through the delicate foreskin. Asa felt more keenly than before the pain of the piercing; a small gasp escaped around the gag. When a tiny trickle of blood dribbled from the newest puncture, he closed his eyes again.

At last the doctor finished. He stood back to admire his handiwork: six knots in all, in two close-knit groups of three. A narrow gap at the center would, in theory, allow Asa to piss—if he ever lost his erection. The throbbing cock fought against the stitches, the tiny punctures oozing blood.

A few minutes later Asa came to—only then realizing he'd passed out—and saw that MacGregor had set up an IV to feed clear liquid into his ballsac. Asa watched with a kind of insane calmness as the saline flowed into his sac.

Breathing seemed easier, and he noticed that both of his nostrils were clear. The bandages in his mouth were soaked with his spit, and the bandages around his chest were damp with his cooling sweat.

Though it seemed that the flow of saline was endless, his scrotum didn't expand as he'd expected. As a deep ache spread from his balls to his gut, though, he understood: the fluid was going directly into one of his testicles.

While Asa watched, MacGregor used a clamp to stop the flow of saline. He gently removed the needle and discarded it. He fitted a fresh one to the end of the IV hose.

Carefully slipping the new needle through Asa's ballsac, the doctor said, "This is a very tricky business. One slip and I could pierce the epididymis or—God forbid—the semi-niferous tubules." He chuckled. "You'd be in a world of shit then. I'd probably have to take the testicle."

"YOU WANT
IT BAD,
DON'T YOU, BOY?"
THE DOCTOR
SAID, TAKING ASA'S
DRIPPING
COCK IN HIS HAND.

Resolving again not to move a muscle, Asa resisted the urge even to gasp. Fascinated, he watched the MD probe for the exact spot, then insert the needle into the other nut. Asa felt the stab, but it was a distant, dull pain, not the agony he had expected.

MacGregor stripped off his gloves and stood back. "The saline goes between the tunica vaginalis and the tunica albuginea." The words made Asa feel a little nauseated—or was it the pressure in his balls? The doctor went on: "You feel both the outward pressure on the vaginalis and the inward pressure on the albuginea. Beautiful, isn't it?"

Asa waited, completely helpless, while the ache in his balls reached a thundering crescendo. In a flash of white and a burning, blinding eruption of agony, he came. The narrowness of the gap between his foreskin stitches forced his thick cream to splatter in a hundred directions, spraying his chest and face, the doctor's smock, and the polished tabletop. MacGregor wiped a single drop from his nose and, looking into Asa's eyes, licked it off his bare finger.

As Asa's cock softened, the good doctor hefted a ten-millimeter sound. "Wonderful," he said, "now we can move on to something fun."

Asa's dick grew stiff again as soon as he recognized the sound's purpose; MacGregor couldn't use it after all. With a wry smile, the MD tossed the instrument onto the trolley.

"Fortunately, I have a few alternatives in mind," he said.

The doctor lowered the tabletop, leaving just enough room for Asa's arms underneath it. He stepped away and returned a moment later with a broad grin, a fresh pair of gloves, and a cellophane package containing a long, pale blue tube. While the doctor spoke of "Foley" and "22 French," Asa's dick reached for the ceiling, knowing for certain now that it was going to get fucked.

Setting the catheter aside, MacGregor draped squares of white cloth over Asa's balls and crotch. The cloth was warm and soft. His cock poked up from the white field like a monument after a snowstorm.

MacGregor produced a 30cc syringe. The barrel was full of something as clear as water. The doctor pressed the plunger, gently, so that a drop of the stuff wetted the tip of the empty needle hub.

With a rough grip on Asa's dick, the good doctor searched for the spot among the stitches where he'd hidden the piss slit. The slick hub entered, and Asa felt a small sensation that was and was not like taking a leak. MacGregor emptied the syringe of its slick cargo. The gel was cool and strange. It briefly triggered an itch so deep that it could never be scratched, then warmed and felt like nothing at all.

MacGregor tore open the catheter package and, handling the tube with the tips of his fingers, slipped it from the cellophane. He dribbled lubricant from foil packets onto the tube. Using a shining clamp with brown rubber jaws, he stopped the open end.

Watching Asa's face in a way that made Asa extremely nervous, the doctor slipped the end of the catheter into the lubed slit. The gel in his urethra bubbled up around the Foley and glittered like dew on the spidery threads of his stitches.

Asa groaned around his gag. The feeling of invasion was deep and complete; he'd been taken and taken over; he would never again belong completely to himself. He sagged inside the cocoon of bandages, closing his eyes with the reverence of a penitent.

The tip of the catheter reached Asa's prostate. He shuddered, his ass clenching hungrily. When Asa opened his eyes he saw that the doctor was frowning with concentration. He had the look of someone trying to hear something from a great distance. He pushed gently, coaxing the sphincter to accept the intruder; Asa felt it go.

The forked tube pouted from the end of Asa's hard prick like the freakish antennae of an alien being. Holding the catheter, MacGregor poked the empty hub of another large syringe—this one, he explained, was filled with sterile saline—into the smaller tube and slowly pressed the plunger. He let go and the catheter remained in place.

The doctor lifted the white cloths away. Crumpling them and tossing them onto the bottom shelf of the trolley, he stood back. He smiled. "You look hot," he said. "That big fat prick of yours lying across your belly with that bright blue tube sticking out of it. Your hard body struggling against those bandages. That thick gag choking your pretty fucking face. Very hot."

MacGregor had at some point opened the top few buttons of his smock, revealing a frenzy of orange curls. Asa viewed the MD's broad, hard body over the width of his own meat. His eyes trailed down to the doctor's crotch. Even in the dim light at the edge of the room, Asa could make out the prodigious curve of MacGregor's stiff pole where it tented the front of his pants.

The dull ache in Asa's balls had not subsided. His pole marched to the robust tattoo of his heartbeat. He suspected that he had the worst case of blue balls in history. Moaning softly, he closed his eyes.

When he opened them again, MacGregor's face was inches from his own. Coiled around the doctor's forearm was a short, clear hose open on one end and terminating in a nozzle shaped like a little cock. "Double Bardex," MacGregor called it.

Doctor MacGregor fit the hose neatly into the connector at the end of the catheter's drainage lumen. Lubricating the Bardex with gloved fingers, MacGregor whispered, "So fucking hot."

The nozzle slipped easily through Asa's gaping hole.

After the double fistfucking, the aching ring of muscle had little bite left in it. MacGregor pumped up the Bardex balloons, and Asa felt them settle uneasily against the inside and outside of his sphincter.

A flick of MacGregor's forefinger and thumb released the clamp on the catheter. The sensation of the piss flowing out of him was weirdly absent, but, as the hose from Foley to Bardex took the dark yellow of his urine, Asa instantly felt a release of the pressure in his bladder. It was replaced by the warm, almost sickening, flood of liquid into his ass.

MacGregor shed his gloves. With his little finger he collected some of the lube that had dribbled from Asa's cockslit. He painted a line down the center of the boy's prick. Grasping the shaft lightly, he stroked it. As the doctor squeezed, Asa felt the presence of the catheter inside him even more keenly.

Doctor MacGregor crossed behind the table. The bandages loosened suddenly as the doctor unraveled them and let them fall in a heap on the floor. He lowered the table so that Asa lay flat. He plucked the bandage-gag from Asa's mouth. Asa breathed deeply. His head and lungs were completely and miraculously clear.

Rubbing Asa's hands to restore the circulation, MacGregor leaned close over the younger man's face. The light above made his red hair into a bright halo. Asa hoped for a kiss—he could taste it in advance, sweet and warm and deep—but instead MacGregor whispered, "Don't touch your cock, or I'll have to punish you."

"Yes, Doctor."

A moment passed. MacGregor smiled, then walked away.

Asa heard him at the sink again, scrubbing up, and the sound of running water seemed to be the sound of his bladder draining and his ass filling.

Gloved again, MacGregor stepped to the trolley. He selected a fresh, threaded needle. Without flourish, he showed it to Asa.

His voice was hard, businesslike. "Again, I've chosen carefully. I'm using this for practicality rather than pain. Give me your hand."

Apprehensive, but unable to disobey or protest, Asa held out his hand. MacGregor grasped it, holding it with warm, firm pressure at the center of the palm. With quick, even stitches he sewed Asa's index and middle fingers together from web to fingertip. There was only a little blood, but the nick of the needle and pull of the thread felt like a handful of bee stings.

Through tears, Asa watched his hand become a paw.

MacGregor sewed each finger to its neighbor and the thumb crookedly against the palm. The stitches were so tight that Asa could not curve his fingers, but not so tight that they pulled out when he tried.

When he'd finished with the left hand, the doctor asked for the right. Asa closed his eyes, sobbing, and summoned a load of courage that would not come. He wanted MacGregor to take his hand, to force his submission, but the doctor simply waited. At last, he raised his hand. MacGregor raped it with a fresh needle.

MacGregor again slipped the empty hub of the syringe into the end of the smaller catheter lumen. As he slowly pulled the plunger toward him, the barrel filled with saline. The Foley began slipping of its own accord from Asa's body. MacGregor caught the catheter halfway out and slowly removed it.

Asa's ass was sloshing-full of his own piss. Doctor MacGregor deflated the Bardex and pulled it out of Asa's ass. He replaced it with a fat, rippled buttplug. The first two thicknesses slid easily through Asa's hole. At its widest point, the plug was as broad as MacGregor's hand, broad enough to hurt going in and to stay in place without much effort.

"We're going out, boy," MacGregor said, donning fresh gloves, "and since that fucking piece of yours won't quit, I guess I'll need to take some drastic action with it."

Asa trembled, as much from the idea of dragging his used and battered body outside as from the promise of drastic action. Somehow, he'd never imagined leaving this room.

The doctor swabbed Asa's crotch with more antiseptic

▲ GAME LAD

Newcomer Lash brings a masochist, a handsome boy, and a ready rod. His Master Cougar Cack uses him unapologetically, with aiding permission for the slave to shoot his load. Lash is put through more than half a dozen sensory bound ordeals. He even endures the cruel, a cruel punishment of rope, suffering as heavy chains, sitting on cold concrete, shivering with cold. Master Cougar clearly enjoyed tracking Lash's boy. A one hour color video from Tom "Ropes" McGarr.

PURGATORY WEEKEND

Devon, a new comer who, as instructed, holds his motorcycle slutless through the streets of San Francisco. On arrival his Master, Cougar Cack, removes the chain he had locked on the lad's neck the past week. Cougar then takes his trembling lad, who is still sore from last week, down to the cells. What follows is non-stop bondage as Devon struggles to serve his Master. Eventually the slave must endure very tight long-term bondage positions. Full length video color 1hr14

SPRING BREAK ▶

Newcomer Christopher Valenz is as sensual as he is terrified. He had the good fortune to run into Cougar Cack, a man who knows how to handle nervous first-timers. Flipping the lad's clothes off and tightly binding him for service and submission, Cougar demands and receives everything the slave boy can deliver. This is a very erotic, non-stop bondage and domination feast. Full length video color 1hr14

◀ TRAIN UP A PIRATE

Christopher Valenz' wake-up call comes early, when his Master David releases him from a leaded closet in which he, rained and shackled, spent the night. A quick shower and a hearty breakfast are all that, allowed before the slave is put to use. What follows is half a dozen positions of tight rope bondage. Between positions the slave is kept gagged, chained, and caged. Christopher is not only beautiful but passionately turned on to his slavery. A one hour color video.

How to become a Tough Customer

Tough Customer photos are contributed by DRUMMER readers. You're a Tough Customer aren't you? You should send us a picture. Send a black and white photo (color is OK if the contrasts are sharp) with your name and address printed on the back, along with a statement that you are of legal age and you want to be published as a TC. You may give your address for publication, or we will assign you a TC Box number. In effect this is a free classified ad with your picture in it, so let us know what you want to say, too. We can't show penetration, and photos can not be returned. Mail to: Tough Customers, PO Box 410390, San Francisco, CA 94141-0390

How to respond to a Tough Customer

If the TC you want to respond to has an address, respond directly to him at that address. If he has a box number follow the instructions on page 52 of this magazine under "How To Reply To A Dear Sir Ad". You may also leave a message for your favorite TC with our new TC PhoneLine. See page 81 for the number to call and respond to a TC phone box.

How to use our TC phone line

If your TC picture appears on the following pages the four digit # following TC in your ad is your mailbox # as well as your TC phone line #. To retrieve messages left for you on the phone line you must first call Desmodus, Inc. at 415-252-1195 to receive your access code (ask for Dept. TC). After you receive your access code, you may call the Tough Customer PhoneLine to retrieve your messages.

How to get a lot more Tough Customer pictures

We have published four special, all-TC magazines so far. You can order TC5 by sending $6.95 + $2.00 S/H to: Ro8, 22 Shotwell St., San Francisco, CA 94103. Please specify which issue (TC1, TC2, TC3 and TC4 also available $6.95 each, $4.00 total S/H for all four) CA residents add 8.25% sales tax. Or call (415) 252-1198 with your credit card order
